

I do not approve of having unsolicited phone calls from banks, credit card companies, or any other institutions. This weakens the Indiana law that we now have.